New CAO named

Director of Finances also appointed

by Janice Harrington
Review Editor

Didsbury town council has announced the appointment of a new permanent Chief Administrative Officer.

Evan Parliament, the former administrator for the Village of Bentley, will take over his new job in Didsbury on July 10.

Acting CAO Doug Plamping said Parliament was chosen for the job earlier in the month but could not be named until he had resigned from his position in Bentley.

Parliament, who was one of six candidates interviewed from 70 applicants, will take over a revamped CAO's position which includes economic development.

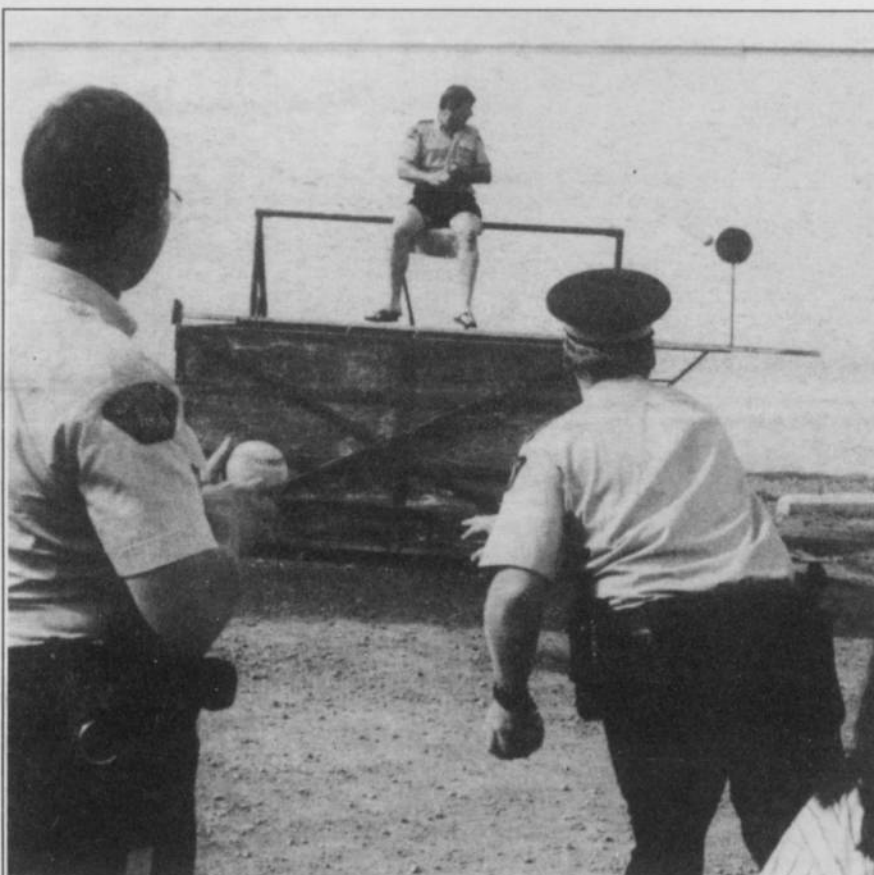

"Town council was looking for someone who had the experience in economic development and also in administration," Plamping said. "They felt (Parliament) was best suited for the town."

Council also announced the appointment of the Director of Finance.

Sandra Veentra, who was Director of Finance at Elk Point Municipal Hospital before she lost her position in the hospital's downsizing, will also begin July 10.

"Town council feels she is really well qualified in finances and in human resources which is also part of the job," Plamping said.

Both new administrators will undertake two days of orientation with acting CAO Plamping before settling into their jobs.

Calgary man charged in sex assaults

by Janice Harrington
Review Editor

A Calgary man has been charged in relation to sex offenses committed in Olds last week.

Gordon William Sanderson, age 59, was charged with two counts of sexual interference, one count of indecent exposure and one count of possessing child pornography after Olds RCMP investigated alleged incidents in Olds on June 27.

Sanderson was released on $1000 bail and was ordered to stay away from the victims. While it is normal for the names of the victims not to be released, Olds RCMP said they were also withholding their ages.

Sanderson will make his first appearance on the charges in Didsbury Provincial Court on August 2.

Three vehicle accident claims one

by Janice Harrington
Review Editor

The Canada Day long weekend began in tragedy last week after a three vehicle accident on Highway 22 claimed the life of one woman.

Didsbury RCMP were called to the accident at the intersection of Highway 22 and the Burnt Timber Road north of Cremona Friday at about 2 pm. Reports said a car, heading northbound on the highway, slowed to turn west onto the Burnt Timber Road when it was struck from behind by another vehicle.

The force of the accident pushed the car into oncoming traffic in the southbound lane where it was struck head on by a gravel truck.

The woman driver of the car was killed instantly. RCMP are withholding the identity of the woman until notification of next of kin.

Investigation of the accident is continuing.

Garage sale raises $800

by Janice Harrington
Review Editor

Thanks to the generosity and keen bargain smelling noses of Didsbury residents, the Canada Day events committee managed to raise approximately $800.

The funds were raised during the Canada Day garage sale held at the Pengary House on June 24.

Canada Day Committee chair Marcia Forth said organizers were very pleased with the response from the community.

"We got some great stuff and there were so many people there," she said.

The money raised by the committee will be put into a fund to help cover expenses for Canada Day festivities in 1996. The town of Didsbury has agreed to purchase the fireworks for this year's celebration, but Forth said they will only contribute up to $600 next year.

"And fireworks can cost $1000 or more," she said. "So we will be needing the extra money."

Forth said the committee plans to stay together and plan further fundraising efforts for Canada Day fun.

"Hopefully we will be able to get started in January next year," she said. "This year we only had two months so we have really been scrambling."

Olds College to rebuild forage centre

by Janice Harrington
Review Editor

The Olds College Board of Governors has voted to rebuild its forage centre which was destroyed by fire last month.

In a press release, the College announced it would investigate the alternatives for rebuilding the centre, which had been run in conjunction with Transfeeder Inc. The business operation was also used to teach research, development and production to students at the college.

The forage centre was destroyed by a fire on Friday, June 20, which is suspected to have begun in the drying fields east of the business's processing buildings. All three buildings on the site and 100,000 bales of hay were destroyed in the fire. Damage was estimated at $2 million.

Transfeeder managed to shift their operations to their newly opened Cremona plant.

RCMP suspect arson may have been the cause of the fire.

RCMP report

by Cst. W.T. Houk

The school year has come to an end and summer holidays are upon us. This means packing up the vehicles hooking up to the trailer and heading off to your favorite vacation spot.

Summer holidays also means the onset of Break and Enters. The Didsbury RCMP would like to remind the people who are going away to make sure their homes and property are secure. Here are a few tips that may help prevent you from being a victim. Before you leave on your holiday:

- make sure all your windows are closed and locked.
- all doors and entrance ways are locked.
- have your neighbor check on the home periodically.
- have lights left on during the night making the home look as though someone was there.
- have your newspaper subscription cancelled. This way your papers are not piled up on the front steps.
- Let's make sure you have a fun and productive holiday and not the thieves.

Mental health committee members sought

Special to the Review

If you are concerned about mental health services in your community, here's your chance to be involved in planning and designing a new system. You can volunteer to be a member of one of the Provincial Mental Health Board's regional mental health advisory committees.

Betty Jeffers, the board's director of Planning, said, "The board is looking for mental health consumers and their families, also health care professionals and community members interested in mental health reform."

"This is a unique opportunity to influence how the mental health system will change," she said. In addition, the board hopes that the advisory committees will remain after mental health services have been divested to the regional health authorities to provide ongoing advice to mental health program decisions. Divestment will take place by March 1997.

There will be one committee for each regional health authority across the province, according to Jeffers.

Each committee's role is to be a resource to the Provincial Mental Health Board. In other words, it will provide local input into decisions about how mental health services will be delivered and organized in its region. Members will be involved in activities designed to seek community ideas and concerns, and help identify mental health needs in the community.

A major task of the committee will be to assist in the development of a regional service plan for mental health services.

The regional mental health advisory committee will report to the Provincial Mental Health Board and its respective regional health authority board.

To be considered for committee membership, each applicant must have a good understanding of mental health and related services in the region and be able to represent a broad community perspective. Good communication skills and the ability to work as a team member is also important. The board anticipates the committees' membership will reflect the demographics of each region.

Jeffers said, "We hope the regional mental health advisory committees can begin to meet by this fall, if not before." Orientation and training will be provided to committee members.

Individuals interested in applying for membership on the committees should contact: Monica Flexhaug, Planner, E. Central Zone, Provincial Mental Health Board, P.O. Box 4422, Ponoka, T4J 1S1, ph. 783-9170 for an application. The application deadline is July 28, 1995.

Court shorts

Despite showing remorse for what they called a "stupid act", two men did not get a discharge on charges for stealing a car grill from an Olds parking lot.

Kevin James Anderson and Larry Kenneth Kadey were given a suspended sentence and six months probation after pleading guilty on two different charges. Anderson pleaded guilty to theft of the grill and Kadey pleaded guilty to possession of stolen property.

The charges were laid May 8 after RCMP found the grill in Kadey's possession. The crown told the court the two men had stolen the grill from a car in the parking lot at Westview Park Apartments in Olds after searching for a matching grill for Anderson's car. The grill was later returned to the victim.

The provincial court judge call their actions a "mean act" when delivering his sentence.

A minor, charged with 13 counts related to break and enter offences in Sundre, will go to trial on November 15.

The 15-year-old, who cannot be named under the Young Offenders Act, pleaded guilty to one count of stealing a purse and not guilty to the other charges. He will be sentenced after facing trial on the remaining charges.

Another 15-year-old, also charged with stealing the purse in Sundre, pleaded guilty to the offence and was sentenced to six months probation and told to complete 40 hours of community service.

The judge warned a 15-year-old youth that he would look on a break and enter charge as a youthful mistake but would not be so lenient again, after the boy pleaded guilty to breaking into a friend's farm near Bowden.

The boy, who cannot be identified, was with a group of friends when he used his knowledge of the whereabouts of key to a friend's farm, broke in and stole a jar full of coins.

The group were discovered later by another neighbor who drove onto the property and found them attempting to break down a barn door.

The judge told the youth that his crime was serious because it was a breach of trust. The youth was sentenced to one year probation and ordered to complete 60 hours of community service.

An 18-year-old man was ordered to undergo some psychiatric testing before sentencing after he pleaded guilty to theft, possession of stolen property and possession of a break and enter tool.

Jason Long will undergo the assessment which will be used to help the judge impose a sentence.

Long was charged after Didsbury RCMP received a complaint about a stolen truck. Long was discovered at the Water Valley Community Centre loading a microwave, television, stereo equipment and assorted food items in to the truck. Another suspect was spotted at the scene but managed to escape and has not been apprehended.

Long, who has had 14 prior property related convictions and has spent time in jail four times, told the judge he had a difficult childhood.

"I find a very sad background here but that in itself will not save you, you have to answer to your actions," the judge said.

Long will be sentenced in Calgary on July 25.

While small Alberta towns should be commended for coming up with inventive ways to attract traffic to their towns, Torrington should be hanging its head in shame for its recent efforts at recognition.

This small town east of Olds grabbed media headlines recently by declaring itself the gopher capitol of Canada and opening a gopher museum.

The idea is a cute one. Prairie towns constantly fight the onslaught of the pesky gopher which has overridden our fields and pastures thanks to our short-sighted destruction of their natural predators. It is smart to turn a liability into an asset.

But the idea is cute only until you get inside their lovely museum.

Inside, hundreds of stuffed gopher corpses line the displays, each decked out in costumes in a morbid attempt to portray the history of this town.

And the worse part is, the locals think it is a fabulous idea to exploit their rodent neighbors in such a manner. Talk about being left in the dark ages.

How much positive publicity does this town think it will receive? While the Richardson ground squirrel is not an endangered species, there is growing concern for the ability of humans to live in accord with the animals and the rest of nature. While it is sometimes necessary to kill gophers when they get carried away with their "community building" in certain areas, exploiting their death in such a way is simply a violation of the sanctity of life.

Killing and feeding is part of the cycle of life. Animals have to kill one another for survival. Nowhere have I ever heard killing animals and stuffing them for recreation is necessary for survival. For a better example of how to deal with the problem, we only need to look as far as Madden. Farmers and ranchers from this area are also forced to liberate their fields from the gophers. But instead of poisoning them, which forces the poison up the food chain, or simply tossing their bodies into the trash, they take them to the Rockyview Wildlife Recovery Centre. That way, the gopher's death helps sustain the life of another animal. As it is in nature.

The ground swell of recognition that our attempt to overpower nature will only result in a huge backlash is growing. People everywhere recognize that working with nature instead of raping and pillaging it means our resources will last longer. But somehow that ground swell has left Torrington behind.

I had the privilege of opening the Big Country Games in Didsbury on June 16.

All the hard work and long hours from the volunteers made these games extremely successful. An atmosphere of civic pride was generated in and around Didsbury and that should be credited to these dedicated volunteers.

Congratulations to the winning qualifiers who will now participate in the Alberta Summer Games in Spruce Grove. You all have my best wishes for success in these games and remember, you are all winners!

As Wild Rose constituents know, big games also happened in Ottawa.

The Liberal Gun Control Bill was rammed through and now sits with the Senate. With support of 80 percent of Wild Rose constituents who indicated in three polls they could not support this Bill, I voted against it. If you want to express your views regarding this legislation, please write Senate Committees, 140 Wellington St., Ottawa, ON K1A 0A4, indicating "Gun Control Bill" on the envelope.

The Dairy Commission bill was hotly debated. Reform believes the producers should control their business, not some appointed bureaucrats whose only contact with dairy products is cream in their coffee and milk on their cereal.

We are strong supporters of producer co-operative systems that allow Canadians who are working day in and day out in the industry, the power to decide their own futures.

One Bill we got passed through the House prior to the break is special. The DNA testing legislation will give peace officers a new tool in finding the guilt or innocence of accused violent offenders. Michael Manning asked my help in getting a DNA testing bill passed into law, so his daughter's accused murderer could not escape justice. All Reformers have worked tirelessly to force the Justice Minister to act.

When we backed the Honourable Allan Rock into a corner during Question Period on June 20, he finally agreed to bring DNA testing legislation forward. That was a very proud moment for all Reformers.

To further justice, I have tabled two Private Member Bills. The first would prevent bail to all those accused of stalking, sexual assault with weapon and aggravated sexual assault, if the victim and/or another person fully identifies the assailant. It is hoped that this bill will make certain victims feel safer, while the assailant is awaiting trial.

My second bill will allow any peace officer to arrest and detain anyone violating probation. By this fall, there will be another bill ready for tabling that will allow any police officer to detain, without warrant, anyone found violating parole conditions. For example, this bill will allow police to hold and detain for a parole board hearing, anyone frequenting a school yard, when a condition of parole mandates they must not be alone near where children

A warning

Dear Editor:

Unfortunately, in my letter of last week, part of the explanation of this country's monetary policy was omitted. Since monetary policy plays so large a role in our deplorable public debt crisis, the current system would not be tolerated if more people better understand it. Not only is it unworkable and immoral, it is also unlawful, being contrary to Section 91 of the BNA Act, which is still a valid part of our Constitution. I also mentioned that Paul Hellyer, a former federal cabinet minister, had exposed and explained the system in a recent open line program. He has also written a book about it.

However, when one surveys the larger scene, the desperate state of the whole world, it becomes obvious that money policy is just part of a huge, complicated and unworkable system which is crumbling because it runs contrary to the laws of God. And all our daily struggles, frustrations and complexities are blinding or distracting us away from the really important things which have to do with our eternal destiny - our understanding and appreciation of the love and justice of God.

We are now seeing alarming environmental problems such as thinning of the ozone layer, earthquakes, fires, floods, hurricanes, etc., all increasing in frequency and severity. And there appears to be no solutions to the agonizing and rapidly escalating social problems - endless wars, crime, corruption, perversion, famines, diseases - the daily news is positively sickening - worse and more of it, whatever it is.

Many people recognize these as the prophesied signs of the end time. But many scoff at the idea and it is prophesied that there would be scoffers, saying it was ever thus, history repeating itself (see 2 Peter 3:3-6). Our Lord Jesus also said that in the last days just prior to His return people would be carrying on as usual, ignoring warnings and warning signs, "As it was in the days of Noah." (Matt. 24:37-39).

The messages of the three angels of Revelation 14 are for our day - God's urgent warnings given in love and great concern for a perishing world. The first angel proclaims the everlasting gospel - the good news that Christ died to pay the price of our sins. But it also tells us that the hour of his judgment is come and calls us to worship and reverence our Creator God. Remember that Jesus said, "If you love me, keep my commandments." (John 14:15), and "In vain they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men." (Matt. 15:9). We can understand the vital importance of obedience to God's perfect laws when we see the results of rebellion against them - the increasing violence and depravity, the tears and troubles of this sick old world. A close relationship with our Creator, Redeemer and Lord, Jesus Christ, makes possible the keeping of those laws for God is the source of all life, wisdom, love and power.

The second angel tells of the fall of Babylon, which is symbolic of false beliefs and distortions of truth. In Rev. 18:4 a voice from Heaven calls, "Come out of her my people that ye be not partakers of her sins and that ye receive not of her plagues." The third angel of Rev. 14, using the strongest language possible, warns against worship of the beast and his image and receiving his mark (See also Rev. 13). God made us free to choose but there are powers now taking shape which will try to force people to worship according to man-made decrees. Those who ignore God's warnings and comply with these commands will receive the mark - a fatal mistake. In reading Rev. 14:9-11 we must remember the fate of the ancient cities of Sodom and Gomorrah which suffered the punishment of eternal fire (Jude 7). The fires went out but the results are permanent. When God must finally destroy sin and unrepentant sinners, that destruction is called "His strange act" (Isa. 28:21) because it is so foreign to the nature of our God of love. But no one need be destroyed. He is not willing that any should perish, "For God so loved the world that He gave His only son" (John 3:16). However, God will not force us; we must choose. But He warns us, "There is a way that seems right to a man but the ends thereof are the ways of death." (Proverbs 14:12).

Sin cannot be allowed to continue forever to spoil everything for everybody. When all intelligent beings have seen the end results of sin, the transgression of God's laws (which are for our good), then God will be vindicated when He finally puts an end to it. And we are assured that iniquity will not occur again (Nahum 1:9). God will wipe the tears from our eyes (Rev. 21:4) and we are told that "Eye has not seen nor ear heard, neither has entered into the heart of man, the things that the Lord has prepared for them that love Him." (1 Corinthians 2:9). Probably the most significant and encouraging sign of the end time is the fact that the gospel is now going out to all the world as never before, as our Lord said it would. (Matt. 24:14).

This brief outline will hopefully awaken interest in those who have not recognized the urgency of the signs of our time or the brevity and uncertainty of our lives. There is much more to learn. We all need to study the Bible and related history and current events. And we need to pray that when our Lord returns on His promised rescue mission, we may be among those who keep the (unchanged) commandments of God and the faith of Jesus. (Rev. 14:12).

Yours sincerely,
Mrs. Robert H. Ross

Democracy anyone?

Dear Editor:

Democracy is supposedly a government by all the people of a country, especially through representatives whom they elect. It seems that two of our highest officials, namely Mr. Chretien and Mr. Rock, who were elected by 'we the people', are attempting to turn Canada into a military state, as Hitler did to Germany. The powers they possess and are attempting to possess has made them "Demonic" and they should be made accountable for their conduct, for as the constitution states, they were elected to fulfill the will of the people...not theirs. They are treating us as small children and making decisions for us on issues which they deem we do not have the capability to evaluate.

Mr. Chretien's threat to the Liberal Party members who have voted against the bill, as requested by their constituents, is truly the words of a man who has lost his self-possession. Do we need a leader such as this to be the Premier of Canada? Mr. Chretien must realize that he is voting against the will of the people and can also be renounced from his position by the people of Canada.

Mr. Rock, who is pushing as hard as he can to make Canada into a military confederate, has listened to the people but has not heeded to their wishes. His judgment may prevail in a company that he owns, but Canada is a confederation of provinces, counties, municipalities, cities, towns and villages governed by the people. It appears that Mr. Chretien is wearing blinders and Mr. Rock is wearing ear plugs, as some of the other leaders did in the past and were soon replaced by vote of the people.

We must accept some of the blame for the conduct of our elected members, for it seems that we the people become complacent at times and invariably fail to bring our beliefs to light, that is when problems ensue...the door is left open for the assembly of the minority who have the temerity to wait and seize every occasion available to pressure the government into passing senseless laws. The time for action is prior to the passing of a bill, not after. It is true that many a bill is passed without our knowing its content or its purpose, and so our elected representative should devise some means of communication to alert us of even some of the minor bills or amendments that are proposed to be enacted as law. By such action on their part, we would then be in a position to evaluate such bills and be able to give intelligent and positive direction to our representatives.

If the day ever comes when we are no longer permitted to voice our views through our representatives, it will be the conclusion of democracy.

Leadership in a crisis

Dear Editor:

I would like to respond to Environment Minister Ty Lund's comments which appeared in the media this past week.

Following the Liberal Opposition's questioning the government's relief efforts, Mr. Lund claims that some people are always looking for somebody to blame and their time would be better spent filling sandbags.

In the future, I urge Mr. Lund to check his facts before making such inflammatory remarks.

Unlike the Conservative government who had no immediate presence in southern Alberta, shortly after disaster struck, Alberta Liberal Leader Grant Mitchell flew to the areas affected by flooding to survey the damage firsthand. Mr. Mitchell was in Medicine Hat as the rivers crested and spoke to local residents regarding their experiences and immediate compensation requirements. And along with Liberal MLA Al Zariwny, filled sandbags.

Where was the Conservative government?

While the Premier attended a secret meeting with the world's wealthy in Switzerland and took in the sights of London and the Caucus

Praise for a job well done

Dear Editor:

Didsbury, give yourself a pat on the back for a job well done. The incredible support of commitment and togetherness really showed during the 1995 Big Country Summer Games. These games will be in our memories for years to come. We not only enjoyed watching all of our young, inspiring athletes but we also had the privilege of being able to share in all the talent of the cultural aspect of the games. Didsbury certainly has lots to be proud of. We have incredible talent in the areas of both art and crafters. We have the most giving volunteers in all of Alberta. We are rich in the area of merchants and business who were always there to help and pitch in where ever needed. We have the best mix of intergenerational helpers found anywhere.

We hope all were able to help in the sharing of the opening ceremonies. It was truly awesome! Didsbury looked real big during the Big Country Summer Games. I think all were inspired at the whole weekend. Smiles adorned all faces and excitement was evident. The spirit of sharing and giving was rampant in Didsbury. Let's keep a little of this "magic" alive in Didsbury for some time to come!

Thank you Didsbury volunteers "too numerous to mention" for being there when we needed you. You can sit back and be proud! Watch for our video coming soon of the opening and closing ceremonies!

To all the athletes who will go on to Stony Plain/Spruce Grove, Didsbury wishes you the best of success. Just being able to go there is an inspiration to all of us here. Red Deer is the proud home of the Alberta Sport Hall of Fame. Athletes such as the ones that participated this past weekend, might be the ones that some day will be inducted into the Alberta Sport Hall of Fame or perhaps even higher. Didsbury may have placed a small part of that athlete getting to that point by having hosted the 1995 Big Country Summer Games.

Now that the Bloc has finally announced they will not concern themselves with anything but separatism, there can be no doubt that Reform is the Official Opposition. Though this Liberal government wants to down-play Reform's role on issues that involve all Canadians, they now have no choice but support our position. The Bloc have abandoned Canada for their separatist cause.

Reforms are gathering speed, first the west, then Ontario and next the Atlantic provinces. The next federal election will complete the task and Canada can get on the road to fiscal, judicial and economic recovery.

Paying for the lamp

At the Legislature

by Bill MacLaughlin
CKUA Correspondent

You know the familiar domestic scene: a broken lamp on the floor and the kids standing around pointing at each other.

That's how it looked at the Nisku Inn last Thursday when federal finance minister Paul Martin flew in to meet with his counterparts from the four western provinces. They met for three hours, then came out one by one to tell reporters their side of the story.

Martin came out first. He's looking for ways to cut the federal deficit and now it's tougher because the latest figures point to a recession. That means less revenue and, if Martin wants to stay on track and he insists that he will, he'll have to cut deeper.

Some of those cuts will come from federal transfer payments to the provinces, money that helps to pay for health, education and a variety of other social programs.

It's an easy target for Ottawa, or at least easier than cutting federal programs directly and Paul Martin came out of the meeting insisting that it was a relatively painless reduction for the provinces, amounting to less than three percent of provincial revenues. "We told them

(the provinces) that we're doing it fairly and we're hitting ourselves more than they and we continue to give them fair warning."

How did that go over? "What we're saying to the people of Saskatchewan," said Saskatchewan finance minister Janice MacKinnon, "is the federal government has made massive cuts in your health programs, your social programs and your education."

Then Alberta Treasurer Jim Dinning stepped before the cameras. "The federal spin doctors deserve bonus pay because they've done such a good job. The fact is that transfers from Ottawa for health, post-secondary education and welfare have been reduced in Alberta by 25 percent over the next three years."

Dinning says Martin should cut more of his own budget first and suggested that the CBC would be a good candidate. "When you're looking for further expenditure cuts," he told reporters, "look at the rest of the federal government, where there is still gobs of dough to be found."

The federal minister knows he'll be singled out as the baddy in more than a few provincial budget speeches next spring and to the extent that those cuts will further loosen Ottawa's grip on national standards in areas like health care, he deserves it. But for provincial ministers looking for a chance to cut social programs, Martin will provide a perfect cover. And that's not lost on Martin.

The cuts are really quite small, he says, and can't be used as an excuse for cutbacks, "and if you take a look at what's been happening, there have been cutbacks in a number of areas by provinces and these reductions haven't even begun to occur yet."

Indeed, the day did produce the image of Alberta's Jim Dinning complaining about the unfairness of cuts made to fight the deficit.

Ironically, the day before, Ontario's new Conservative premier, Mike Harris, told Martin to push ahead with the cuts and promised that Ontario would cope, despite it's huge deficit.

That can't help but throw Dinning's reaction into sharper focus and some Albertans may go so far as to remind the treasurer of where Paul Martin might have gotten the idea of downloading responsibilities onto lower governments to make your own books look better.

It's become a popular political game at both levels of government and the ministers in question may need an occasional reminder that the money all comes from the same source, no matter how much finger-pointing they do with each other.

It's hard to say which of them should be grounded for this, but this much we know: You're going to pay for that lamp.

Going Forth as number one in the nation

by Elaine Wilson
Review writer

Lisa Forth's outstanding accomplishment of achieving the highest mark in Canada on the Pharmacy Board of Canada (P.E.B.C.) exam is a triumph with roots in hard work, natural ability and a offhand remark by her pharmacist father.

"She'd always leaned toward creative things like writing," father Richard Forth said. "She was very talented, writing stories and essays and little novellas. I recall one time, long before she graduated from high school, she mentioned she wanted to be a writer. I just sort of, in casual conversation said, 'Well, that's fine, be a writer if you want to, but how are you going to support this habit until 'the great American novel' gets done?'"

A discussion on the advantages of pursuing a career in pharmacy followed.

"It just sort of got left at that," Richard said. "It was probably three or four years later, just out of the blue one day she said she was going to apply to enrol in pharmacy and then it just went from there."

Lisa attributes the decision to follow in her father's foot steps to simple practicality.

"In grade 12, I decided to take the prerequisites to get into the pharmacy program because my other interest was English. If I went into an arts program I knew I probably wouldn't be able to find a job in my field when I graduated."

The 'great American novel' is still very much within her grasp, but in the meantime Lisa will be taking over as pharmacy manager at Forhan's Pharmacy in Eckville.

Former Didsbury instructors heaped praise on the "quiet but well rounded" student.

"She was excellent at literature," former junior high instructor Brian Banfield noted. "And a pretty good writer."

"I would describe her as gifted and brilliant," math and science instructor Hobe Horton added. "Sometimes I think it bothered her that everything came so easily to her, she didn't like to be singled out."

University of Alberta Pharmacy Faculty professors are equally proud of the fact that for the fifth time in seven years, U of A students, led by Lisa's number one score, topped campuses nation-wide in overall scores.

The three day exam, held June 6, 7 and 8, grants national practice status for those attaining passing grades. The exam recently became mandatory and is notoriously difficult.

"I knew there would be some therapeutics and some chemistry, but I really didn't know what to expect," Lisa said. "I've been telling everybody that I'm the best guesser in Canada."

The first family member to learn of Lisa's accomplishment was her mother Marcia, who broke away from a Big Country Summer Games project to answer the telephone. The caller was a reporter from the Edmonton Journal seeking Lisa's reaction to her crowing achievement.

"I think I was so excited because I knew before Lisa," Marcia said. "The Dean of Pharmacy phoned her at work. They're very proud of her up there, let me tell you. It certainly gives great points to their schooling."

While Lisa was always a top student who "has probably read every book in the Didsbury library", she was not a grin. In fact, she was something of a "party animal" in her teens, according to her mother.

One of her 'on-site' rotations in a working pharmacy brought her back to Didsbury in January of 1995. Working in the store her father had owned from 1984 to 1993, prior to its purchase by Claude and Margaret Baril was definitely a positive experience, for both Lisa and Margaret.

"She's wonderful to work with," fellow U of A graduate Margaret Baril said. "I told her when she worked here, 'I think I learned more from you than you did from me' and I was her preceptor!"

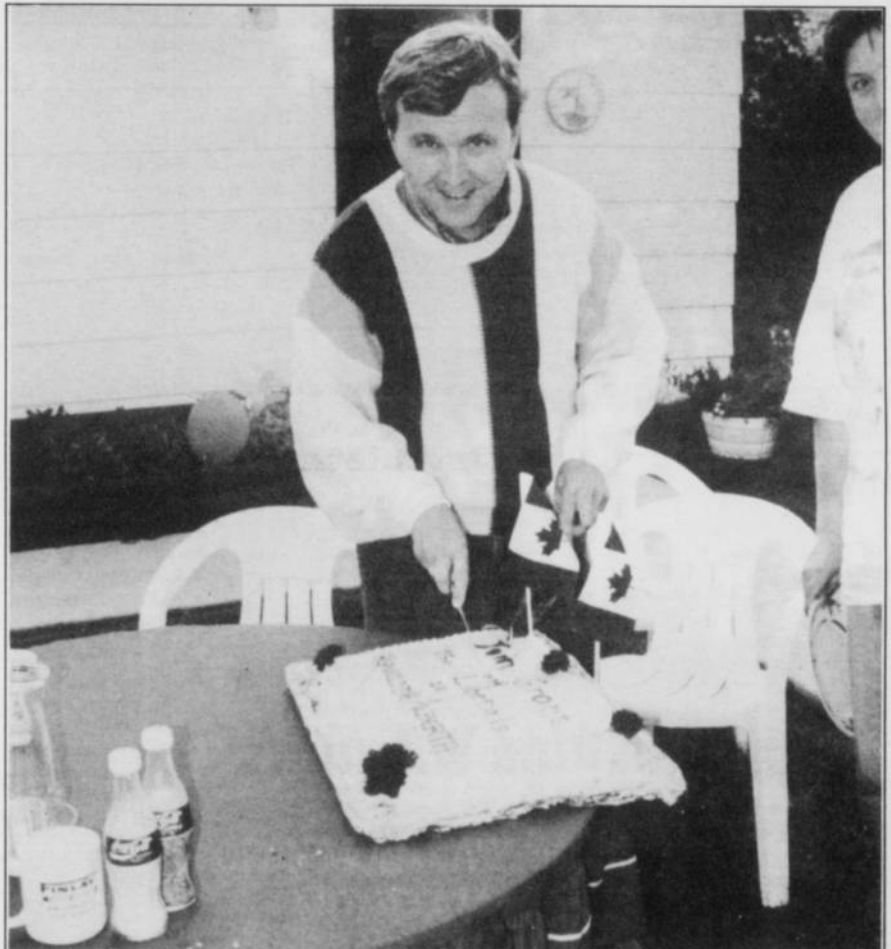

Baril said Forth's professional manner was augmented by a natural ease in working with the public.

"The best thing about Lisa is, she's got the knowledge, but she's also very good with customers."

Given the opportunity for the last word, Baril was asked to use it to sum Lisa up in one word.

Baril responded, "That's a tough one. I guess the word I would come up with is 'comprehensive' or 'well-rounded'. A lot of times when you get someone who does well on the intellectual portion, they don't always have the people skills to go with it, but Lisa has just excellent people skills as well. She's just an all-around top notch person."

Looking ahead. Alberta Liberal leader Grant Mitchell was in Didsbury last week to help the Olds/Didsbury Liberal constituency celebrate their annual barbeque. Mitchell said he feels the Liberals have a good chance to form the next government since they offer a substantial alternative to the Klein agenda for Alberta. Janice Harrington photo

To learn more about aviation all you have to do is A*S*K*

by Elaine Wilson
Review writer

A*S*K*, aka 'Aviation Space Kamp', is gearing up for the second year of welcoming and guiding students interested in the absorbing world of avionics.

Sherry Cooper, Program coordinator and chief flight instructor with Sky Wings Aviation Academy out of Penhold, said one of the most gratifying elements of the program involved observing students personally getting a hands-on taste of applied science.

In the first year, Cooper said the students seemed to thrive on the exciting opportunity to make "boring" courses come alive, as students discovered a functional and exciting application for the dry facts belabored by physics and mathematics instructors.

Presented jointly by Sky Wings and Chinook's Edge School Division, the Space Kamp is based at Red Deer Industrial Airport, located four kilometres north of Penhold.

In addition to a host of related courses and activities including five hours at the controls in an aircraft and a high tech simulator flight, graduates will earn three credits toward their high school diploma. For those wishing to carry on over three summers, a first year geography credit recognized by the University of Alberta can also be earned.

In an effort to include all students the fee of $995 can be worked into a payment plan through Sky

Wings.

"I put in a lot of extra unpaid hours myself," Cooper said. "And there are a lot of people who volunteer their time. Teaching time, board and five hours of flight instruction are all included. We've tried to keep the cost to a minimum."

Applications are accepted on a first come- first serve basis, with a limited number of slots available.

Facilities include multi-media classrooms and teaching theatre, a rocket launch site and "one of the busiest flight training airports in western Canada".

Camp dates are scheduled for July 9-15, July 16-22, August 6-12 and August 13-19. Parental permission is required, along with the name of the school the student will be attending in the fall.

Further information can be obtained by calling (403) 886-5191 (phone) or (403) 886-4279 (fax).

Didsbury Library news

Everyone is invited to view a new art exhibition now at the library. This travelling exhibition from the Muttart Gallery is entitled "Animal Spirits" and features 16 artworks by four Alberta artists - Linda Carney, Holly Newman, Gary L. Cooper and Evelyn Reis.

"Throughout history our lives have been closely linked with the animal kingdom. The earliest art was cave paintings filled with representations of animals.

...Today we have a different bond with nature than our ancestors. Although a large portion of the population lives in urban centres, wildlife is still one of the most popular subjects for artistic consideration.

...Our relationship with animals is still important. Each work confronts our perception of how we affect animals and they affect us."

The Alberta Travelling Art Exhibition program is solely funded by the Alberta Foundation for the Arts, a beneficiary of the Lottery Fund of the Government of Alberta.

The exhibition will be on display at the library from June 28 to July 22, during regular library hours, 10 - 5 Tuesday through Saturday, 10 - 6 on Fridays.

Grades 6 and up are welcome to join us Friday for the feature video "The Faraday Lectures" (brought to us by the Alberta Science Foundation). Also don't forget the board game in the afternoon on Friday.

What Sport I Like

My favorite sport is baseball. I think that baseball is an exciting sport. It is fun to play on a team, or just with your friends.

I am on a baseball team here in Didsbury. We won our first game the other night, against Airdrie. It was a lot of fun, too!

One of my best friends, Jennifer Aarts, is on my team. She plays first base and I play center field. Jennifer and I both love playing baseball.

I have five (5) older brothers, so they will play catch, or even a real game of baseball with me, and that is really, really fun!

I have been in t-ball and baseball since I was five (5) years old, and have enjoyed it ever since then, and I always will.

I think that baseball should be a matter of having fun, not winning or losing.

And that is why I like, and love baseball.

Why I Like My Town

I like Didsbury because of the wonderful things the town council has built. Also, all of the effort and support the community has put into everything.

I love the swimming pool. Lots of people go to it and pretty soon, when everybody can raise enough money, we can buy a waterslide. For a Christmas present, my dad bought my brother, sister, and me a square foot of the pool and he had our name on a plaque. I really loved that present and it helped donate to the pool too.

In the country, people wave to you and are really friendly.

In town, it's nice to know your neighbors are always there to help. When I was little and fell off my bike, a stranger helped me up and we became friends.

I like living in a safe community and feeling okay and not nervous like in Los Angeles. Thank you Didsbury community.

What Sport I Like

The shrap crack of a bat, the yell of the umpire, baseball!! A truly great game. Not many sports are as great and so well known as baseball. So many great players like Babe Ruth, Joe Dimaggio, Ken Griffey Jr. and Mickey Mantle.

Diving, running, catching, hitting, jumping, sliding, pitching all these things really tax your abilities. It's where you find out if you're good or not. The man who invented it was a genius.

Crack of the bat, roar of the crowd, the greatest feeling, hitting a bases loaded home-run. When the ball connects with the bat adrenaline kicks in. You could probably run two-thirds faster.

It is also great to watch it on TV. When Joe Carter won the sixth game of the world series I thought I would die from excitement. You can keep playing baseball until adrenaline overload wipes you out.

Special to the Review

Hi all! Workmen are still working hard at the renovations but at least the residents are all back "home". We ate our meals in two shifts for a couple of weeks but last weekend things progressed far enough for us to use the whole dining room so we eat at the same time now. You're all invited to visit us when it is finished.

The June birthday party was last week. We only have two residents with June birthdays - Mrs. Anna Aschenbrenner and Mrs. Kaye Brown. We were entertained by Joan Goddard and Doreen Johansen who played the piano and sang for us.

Another day Mr. Paul Bonnaure visited us and sang and played his guitar.

Last Saturday a bus load of Olds residents travelled to Sundre to view the Sundre parade from the Foothills Lodge. The chairs were ready for us when we arrived and as usual it was an excellent parade. After the parade, we enjoyed dinner at the Foothills Lodge followed by entertainment. All agreed it was a very pleasant day.

Now that summer is here, we're enjoying getting out more and some are spending time with family and friends.

Our newest residents are Mrs. Irene Charlebois and Mrs. Olive Rice. We welcome you and hope you soon feel "at home". We assure you it will be different when the renovations are completed.

In hospital we have Mrs. Gladys Donald, Mrs. Helen Notley, Mrs. Gladys Smith and Mr. Ken Mullen. We hope you feel much better real soon.

North Lone Pine Women's Institute met on the morning of June 21 at Shirley Thompson's home. To honor the beginning of summer, two songs "In the Good Old Summer Time" and "Roll Out The Barrel" were sung.

All members were in attendance and one visitor Shirley Tighe, a former member. The Roll Call was a "special memory of my grandfather".

An interesting report by delegates Evelyn Clarke and Christine Milne were given on the Camrose Provincial W.I. Convention. They reported it was a good convention and the speakers were outstanding. The provincial handicraft was beautifully displayed. Our Shirley Thompson won the provincial stitchery award with her dresser scarf. All our branch members came home with red ribbons. Noreen Olsen was banquet speaker and as usual was very enjoyable and entertaining.

The S.P.M. tour, now is planned for fall with the hope more members will be able to attend.

We plan on renting a table at Farmer's Market in Didsbury this fall to have a bake table and garden produce sale.

Evelyn Clarke and Shirley Thompson will work the gift shop for July and September.

Bit of Fun by Shirley Thompson "Matching Colors" was won by Christine Milne and 25¢ draw was won by Shirley Tighe.

The September meeting will be at Judy Jackson's and Roll Call "A pleasant or unhappy experience that happened over the summer".

To all Women Institute members, Review staff and readers, have a happy and safe summer. See you in September.

Mmmm...Potatoes & Pasta
There was a time when such delicious, filling, staple foods as potatoes and pasta were forbidden to anyone trying to lose weight. Thankfully, research and increased health consciousness have taught us that fibre foods such as these are very necessary to good health and wise weight loss. What's harmful are all the extras: butter, margarine, sour cream, cheese, gravy and sauce. Try yogurt and a sprinkle of dill on your next baked potato and a zesty tomato, mushroom and herb sauce on pasta. Just as tasty...and completely satisfying!

RELIGION

The Way of Life

by Rev. Robert Mohrs
Redeemer Lutheran Church

July 1st, for me, marks the beginning of summer, a time when visions of BBQs and campfires, picnics and sand castles, summer sports and family reunions dance merrily in my head.

July 1st also marks a day in which we stand proud as Canadians from shore to shore, a day to remember our citizenship and give thanks to God for the many blessings we enjoy.

But then the phone rings and it is so and so phoning to say that their son is diagnosed with leukaemia...you go home to cook the burgers on the BBQ only to run out of propane...the weekend forecast is for rain...you turn on the news only to turn it off...nothing but bad news...another tragedy, another cut back...as quickly as the fireworks are into the sky, explode and return to earth in all their glory, so go the wonderful romantic visions of the summer of 1995. And we are reminded of the fleetingness of our summer celebrations and the fragility of our citizenship here on earth.

That is why St. Paul reminds us in his letter to look beyond the bursting fireworks, the grandeur of the mountains, the enticement of a successfully cooked burger...for these things will pass away in a flash in the twinkling of an eye. He reminds us that as great as our Canadian citizenship is, there is still a more valuable passport to have...he reminds us of our heavenly citizenship. To the Philippians he writes, "our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Saviour from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, who by the power that enables him to bring everything under his control, will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like his glorious body." (Philippians 3:20-21).

At the beginning of this summer of 1995, I invite you to look again to Jesus Christ and in Him, in his suffering and death at Calvary and in his resurrection discover the grandeur of God's love for you and His desire for you to enjoy His peace. He is really not as far away from you as you may think. In fact, He is as close to you as His Word, as close to as the Christian in your office or work place or your friend. In Jesus Christ you will find rest for your soul and the renewal of your being and an eternal citizenship that is secured for you. Then, come what may this summer, you will truly have a glorious summer.

Obituaries

HADERER

Florence Elizabeth Haderer passed away at the Mountain View Health Care Centre, Didsbury on June 26, 1995.

Florence was born July 3, 1907, in Fessenden, North Dakota to Catherine Peiker Zinn and Ezra Milton Zinn. Just prior to her second birthday, the family moved to the Mayton district east of Olds to be nearer to relatives. Florence went to school at the Mayton School. In her teens she met William Haderer from the Poplar Creek district and they were married September 15, 1926. They purchased a section of land from Bill's father and started farming. Florence and Will resided on that same section for nearly 65 years until they moved to the nursing home in 1991.

Florence was predeceased by Bill in 1994, her parents Ezra and Catherine and her brother Orville.

She is survived by two sons: Clifford (Agnes) of Wabamun, Keith (Lorraine) of Didsbury and two daughters: Dolores Adams (Pat) of Edmonton and Jeanette Johnson (Gerald) of Didsbury. She is also survived by seven grandchildren: Robert Johnson (Jeanette) of MacKenzie, B.C., Angela Johnson of Hamilton, Ont., Brenda Rahn (Carl) of Didsbury, Janice Turner (Dean) of Calgary, Gregory Adams of Edmonton, Karen Scott (Murray) of Didsbury and Deanna Haderer of Didsbury. There are also four great grandchildren. Florence is also survived by sister-in-laws, Betty Zinn of Olds and Mary Haderer of Calgary.

Florence was a lover of farm life, remembered by all for hauling grain from the fields in her blue International truck, driving the tractor when needed, milking cows and painting anything that couldn't get away.

She was a charter member of the Poplar Creek Sunshine Club and remained active as long as her health allowed. Florence always maintained a flock of chickens, raised turkeys and grew an enormous garden. As her health deteriorated over the years she kept at her housework and gardening with a determination that was only hers.

Funeral services were held Thursday, June 26, 1995 from Mountain View Funeral Chapel, Didsbury with Dr. Ken Jordan officiating. Interment followed in Mayton Cemetery. If desired memorial tributes may be given to the Heart and Stroke Foundation or the charity of your choice.

Norm Carnochan

Acts of Kindness - just another day in Didsbury

Sometimes it takes an 'outsider' to define what small-town altruism is ideally all about. It was just another day on the job for driver Norm Carnochan of Res-Q Towing & Trailing, service manager Mike Banick of Mountain View Motors and owner Ron Williams of Ron's Automotive Repair. But for Herald golf correspondent Laura Shutiak, this particular mid-June morning was already shaping to be a "nightmare day". Stranded with distributor problems just south of Didsbury on Highway 2, Shutiak's tight schedule stalled along with her car. Carnochan's regular 'check' route run would have insured help within two hours, but a passing motorist with a cellular reduced her wait to five minutes when Banick responded to her predicament by contacting Res-Q Towing. The Mountain View service bays were full, so Banick called Williams who squeezed her in at his shop. "Everybody knows everybody else, so everybody works together," Banick said of the working relationship shared by Didsbury's business community. Meanwhile, Carnochan "phoned four different places" in an effort to locate a rental car after Williams advised that the car would need parts from out of town. Williams located a rental car in Olds and dropped Shutiak off himself, driving back to Olds later in the afternoon when the needed part was located. Upon arriving back in Olds later in the day, Williams not only had her car fixed, but drove back to Olds for the third time that day to transport Shutiak back to her vehicle. A mention in the June 14 Calgary Herald 'Acts of Kindness' column came as a surprise to all concerned. "It's just part of the job, but I do get a lot of satisfaction from helping people," Carnochan said. "I've been [in that position] myself and people have stayed late to help me," Williams said. "That's what we do. That's why we're here. You can't just leave somebody stranded."

Joan Hannah

purple pinnacle

Joan Hannah is preparing to 'hit the road'. After serving in a variety of postings on a local level, Hannah donned the hat of Vice President of the Alberta Royal Purple Association in 1993. On June 10, Hannah was elected to the post of Provincial President, something she "wanted to do", despite the demanding travel schedule. The association's executive is scattered across the province from Grande Prairie to Crow's Nest Pass, but their quarterly meetings each year are held in Red Deer, cutting down at least one segment of travel. Overseeing 18 districts across the province, Hannah plans to visit them all personally. Hannah's enthusiasm is palpable; she sincerely enjoys meeting and working with people and cheerfully notes the gasoline bill is 'on her'. "I don't have much spare time," Hannah conceded during a telephone conversation she squeezed in before heading off to her reception job at Didsbury Veterinary Clinic. Things are equally demanding on the home front. A working 'farm wife' and mother of four, "They're all married; we have 10 grandchildren and one great-grandchild on the way," Hannah enjoys working with animals almost as much as with people. "I like to be outside on the farm with the cattle, the chickens, and the dogs and cats." Her philosophy in maintaining composure within the confines of a hectic and demanding schedule, while thoroughly enjoying all aspects of both club and personal life, is perhaps best reflected in her choice of association theme for the year: "Harmony creates friendship, friendship creates harmony."

Margie Wiens and Jenny Robertson

Didsbury High School

Very little appears to faze Margie Wiens after 15 years as DHS school secretary. "One thing that did get me excited was one time a student was pushed through a window and cut his back - he needed to go to the hospital right now, I think he needed about 20 stitches," Wiens said. "They brought him to the office. I took one look at him and went for help." Jenny Robertson, who's been on the job since March 1, is still searching for that elusive magic blend in juggling priorities. "The biggest challenge is trying to stay on top of things," Robertson said. "There are constant interruptions. I don't think I've ever finished anything I've started without being interrupted by something at least once." Still, both Wiens and Robertson obviously enjoy what they do. "I like working with the kids and the teachers. I like being here in the middle of things," Robertson said, adding with a smile, "I guess I just like to talk." Student attitude and maturity rated a thumb's up with the pair, who will miss the interaction after final classes on June 30. Camping with family members is on Wiens' agenda for the summer, while Robertson related, "Right now all I want to do is go home and get some sleep."

Edna Murphy

Ross Ford Elementary School

Many will remember how that sinking feeling of doom whirling in one's abdomen accompanying a command to visit the principal's office could sometimes be assuaged by a smile of reassurance from the last bastion of hope: the school secretary. Ross Ford's Edna Murphy allowed that her "evil twin", who she jokingly 'confessed' often assumed the school secretary position on high-stress days, was likely not the person they hoped to find behind the desk just then. "This year was a real year of change, with the amalgamation of school districts," Murphy said. "We've gone through some growing pains. New duties have been added and more paperwork has been generated." Murphy plans to get away from it all over the summer by connecting with friends and "doing a lot of trail riding," but conceded she'll be looking forward to the first day of school on August 30 after a summer of rest and relaxation. "I really do love it because it really does involve something new each day," Murphy said the students furnish the biggest boost to her day, providing a steady run of heart-warming surprises. "The little kids, especially in the first couple of years, are so innocent and friendly. Some kids will run half way down the hall just to give you a big hug."

Carol Valteau

Westglen School

Westglen School secretary Carol Valteau held up an 8 page document forwarded to her from the Sundre school system. "This is the job description (for school secretary) they've started working on," Valteau said, adding with a smile, "I've been at Westglen for 8 years and I've just never had time to make one up." The duties of a school secretary range from sorting through the mail and greeting and advising parents and visitors, to resolving student altercations and appraising the severity of playground abrasions. Valteau said the biggest challenge was time management, or as she put it, "Handling 10 things at once." The interview was scheduled for the afternoon when things wouldn't be quite so hectic. Between questions, during this five minute 'lull', Valteau finished the paper work in progress at her desk, issued one ice pack and two reprimands, directed three students to various points in the school, answered a half dozen questions by the teaching staff, picked up three telephone calls and tracked down a 'missing' instructor while trading quips with a steady stream of staff flowing through the office. With only three days of school remaining at time of writing, Valteau had no trouble envisioning her version of summer break serenity: "I'm going to be sitting by [Burnt Stick Lake] with my feet up, with a bag of sunflower seeds and a good book."

Motel to be part of community

by Janice Harrington
Review Editor

Friendliness, hospitality and a sense of community are all part of the operations of a new motel which opened its doors in Didsbury on June 16.

The new Super 8 Motel has strict rules involved in the franchise and the three tenants mentioned above are the basis for those rules according to the motels managers, Burton and Enid Speers.

"What we are running here is what they call a moderately priced motel on relatively high standards," Burton said. "Those are the rules of the franchise, they have high expectations."

The decision to open a new motel in Didsbury was made by a group of local investors who perceived a need for the business. After viability studies and comparisons to other small towns, the group chose to join up with Super 8.

"Having this franchise allows us access to a North American market," said investor Harry Penner. "We also have access to the Super 8 Super line which means we can get bookings from anywhere. So far we have had people from North Carolina, Maine and Vermont book rooms here. We purposely went with an international flag for that reason."

Penner said the motel expects to be able to keep its rooms at least half occupied during its operations.

"Didsbury is way under in motel space as compared to other small towns," Penner said. "The average occupancy rate in those small towns is 68 percent."

And so far, the numbers have looked good. Their first weekend open, the weekend of the Big Country Summer Games, for which they bumped up their opening date, they had 16 guests. Since then, they have received several corporate booking and many others for visitors interested in taking in the Calgary Stampede.

pede.

In the meantime, the Speers, who moved to Didsbury after spending 15 years running a convenience store in Ontario, are busy putting the final touches together at the motel and making their mark on the community.

"Getting involved in the community is one idea Super 8 really likes to encourage," Burton said. "It's part of their corporate philosophy."

In that vein, the Speers and the investors group are working on a special grand opening celebration tentatively scheduled for July 26.

"One of the things we have planned is a tour, but the truth is that anyone who comes to our door and asks to take a look around gets a tour," Burton said. "We really like the idea of making people feel like we are theirs."

Offering top service. Super 8 Motel managers Burton and Enid Speers are working hard to meet the expectations demanded by their franchise for the Super 8 chain. Burton said the motel runs as a moderate price establishment but with high price standards. Janice Harrington photo

Canada Thistle On The Rise

Canada thistle, over the past few years, has continued to gain ground, robbing farmers of yield and in turn, decreasing their dollar return per acre.

This is a major concern shared by all in the agriculture industry and no one is immune. Cattlemen see this nasty weed invading and taking over their pastures, leaving less forage for cattle to graze. Likewise, grain growers are noticing an increase in the size of patches in their fields, with the Canada thistle out-competing the crop and using nutrients and sunlight.

Why is Canada thistle on the increase? The cool, wet conditions in many parts of the prairies are partly to blame as well as the difficult environmental conditions we find during the spraying season. High winds and frequent rains often result in crops getting beyond the safe time to spray and, therefore, the thistle patch doesn't get treated and continues to expand. Unfortunately under these conditions the extensive root system of the plant thrives. This coupled with the trend to less cultivation in the field, all have lead to an explosion of this weed's population. Seed germination, a less significant factor in Canada thistle's spread, also increases under these growing conditions.

What can be done to control Canada thistle? The first thing farmers must realize about trying to control Canada thistle is that it is not a one-shot deal. To achieve total control, a number of cultural and chemical methods need to be employed, a number of times, possibly over a number of years.

Secondly, understanding when the plant is most susceptible will go a long way to achieving your goal of control. The weakest point in the life cycle of the Canada thistle plant, occurs just before flowering or in the flower bud stage. During this period, the plant food reserves are at their lowest and the plant is attempting to send as much food down to the root system as possible. Thus, spraying at this time will get maximum absorption of the herbicide down into the root system.

In established pastures, there are a number of herbicides that suppress Canada thistle. The herbicide one uses depends on whether there are legumes in the stand or not. For pastures that are straight grass, Amitrol T, Banvel alone or with 2,4-D, as well as chemicals in the MCPA family will give top growth control and slow the growth of patches. If the pasture has legumes, such as clover or alfalfa, the list of herbicides are smaller-Amitrol T and the Embutox type chemistries containing 2,4-DB (not 2,4-D).

In field crops, there are a whole host of herbicides that suppress Canada thistle but there are few that give really good control. The herbicide clopyralid, tradename Lontrel, is registered for use on barley, wheat, oats, flax and canola. Grasses used for seed production, such as creeping red fescue, smooth brome grass and timothy, likewise are crops that this product has registration for. Because of clopyralid's good activity on broadleaf weeds it is not to be used on legumes such as field peas, clover or alfalfa.

The use of pre-harvest glyphosate (tradenames RoundUp, Laredo, Wrangler, Renegade and Victor) on wheat, barley, canola and peas has also had an impact on control of Canada thistle. Since the timing of the herbicide coincides with the weakest point in its life cycle, many farmers have experienced exceptional control using this treatment.

For further information on herbicide applications check the manufacturer's label or Alberta Agriculture's blue book. A colorful, informative booklet called "The Thistle Guide" is also available from the local Alberta Agriculture office.

THERE'S NO ALTERNATIVE TO CONCRETE

Concrete is the basement building material with all the advantages.

It's a proven performer. Rugged Tough, Durable. A concrete basement will never burn or rot.

And concrete is safe. Quality-controlled, concrete needs no toxic chemicals which may be hazardous to building occupants.

Concrete is an energy-wise choice. A concrete basement needs little heat or air-conditioning. And concrete walls are easily insulated.

Economically, concrete is a good investment. A concrete basement will add years of life to the foundation and considerable dollars to the resale value of your building.

Add up the advantages. There's simply no alternative to quality controlled concrete. The best basement building material.

Quality Doesn't Cost
- It Pays

Maybe the first of its kind. The Didsbury slo-pitch league grew by one team this year with the addition of what is believed to be the first ever ladies' league team. Composed of Brenda Choquette, Cathy Morton, Kim Hnidy, Penny Clazie, Sheila Milne, Rhonda Hunter, Karen Chernow, Monique Engel, Sheila Kabatoff, Kelly McKinnon, Sue Kary, R'nee Gole and Janet Gole, the team had an exceptional first season, winning 13 of 15 games. Called "The Dirty Mothers", they will next play at the National Ladies Slo-pitch tournament in Bears paw on July 8 and 9.

Dish of exhibition

Hut...hut...a banquet underway,
The CFL is back at play,
Football, wherever, as they may,
To host and toast the Earl of Grey.

Yo! Smorgasbord of superstars,
Of CFL high energy,
Not one fan anywhere at large,
Denies their hospitality.

CFL - eating up the yards,
Light snack or entree, be their guest,
All ending in Saskatchewan,
What else could that mean but THE BEST.

More than enough, all class,
all size,
Such gridiron servings
on the way.
As welcome any appetites,
CFL football. Tasty, eh?

New Exhibition on the slate,
Remembering of Grey
Cups past,
Means happiness is this
for sure,
CFL football. Let 'er blast.

Warren back at top of his game

Special to the Review

It's not like last year's Canadian All-Around Champion, Rod Warren, was having a bad year, but it just wasn't the kind of start he was used to. He was sitting in third in the Canadian saddle bronc standings, but the gap between the leader, Guy Shapka, and himself was widening - and, even worse, he wasn't cracking the top 30 in the PRC A standings.

But that's all just a memory now, after two fourth place finishes at Lea Park, AB and Brandon, MB and then a quadruple weekend in the money, with a win in the saddle bronc on Big Country Rodeo's Crickett and a third in the steer wrestling at High River, AB, a third in the bronc riding on Verne Franklin's Coconut at Sundre, AB and a share of third at Wainwright, AB on Wayne Vold's Prairie Saddlery. All that was worth $4,689, more than doubling his season's earnings in Canada and, more importantly, getting him back in the race for the NFR, his main goal for the year.

"All the winter rodeos, I couldn't seem to get nothing going right," the Valleyview, AB cowboy said. "It kind of gets on your mind after a few months of not winning, but hopefully, it's turned around now. If I can keep placing, maybe I can get back in the NFR hunt sooner or later."

Other winners in the saddle bronc over the June 24th weekend were Skeeter Thurston of Nanton, AB at Wainwright on Vold's Classic Simon for $1,322, and Wildwood, AB's Roy Hay with an 83 on Rex Logan's Maggie for $1,236 at Sundre. Thurston also picked up another $429 for a third place finish at High River.

Another big winner over the weekend was Mervin Hofer of Spring Coulee, AB who roped his way to a win at Wainwright and two second place finishes at High River and Sundre. After competing at only three rodeos before May, the 34-year-old cowboy has taken off recently and is now sitting in the top ten in the Canadian standings. Over his triple money weekend, Hofer won $1,674 at Wainwright after a 8.4 second run, then came second with a 8.4 for $1,534 at Sundre and second again at High River with 9.4 for another $988. So far this season, Hofer has collected 11 cheques for two firsts, five seconds, three thirds and a sixth. "It doesn't get much better than that for me," he said. "We've got three kids now and that slows you down. You don't have that urge to go. I only went to about 25 rodeos a year the last three summers. But it's pretty easy to go now when you're winning."

In the ladies barrel racing, Nanton's Leslie Schlosser was the winner at Wainwright for $1,036 and also came third at High River for $472. Edson, AB's Jackie Scherger took over the rookie lead in her event, after a shared win at Sundre for $849 and a fourth place finish at Wainwright for another $561. Sandi Emond of Malta, MT continued her dominance in Canada this season with another win at High River and fifth place at Sundre.

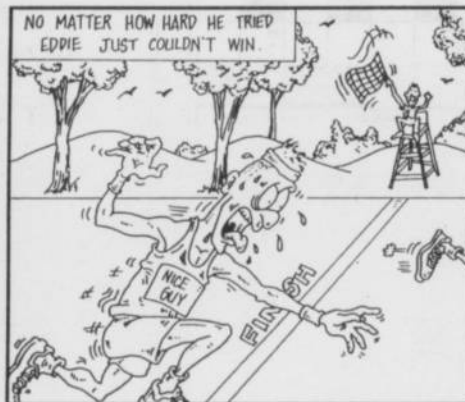

Colin Orr of Maple Creek, SK and Don Blishen of Cochrane, AB were the standouts in bareback, with the duo sharing the win at High River and Blishen picking up second at Wainwright, with Orr right behind in third. Orr rode Big Country's Sneaky Snake and Blishen, Jim Dandy, to each score 76 points and earn $720 at High River. Kenton Randle of Fort Vermilion, AB won the event at Wainwright with an 80-point ride for $1,151 on Vold's Skoal Weekend Warrior, while Strathmore, AB's Jason DelGuercio shared a victory on Franklin's Western Style with Millet, AB's Shawn Vant, riding Ultimately Fine, at Sundre.

In the bull riding, it was a better event for the stock contractor than the bull riders at High River, as all but seven of 51 competitors got bucked off. In the end, Chad Wakefield of Sundre, AB took the win with an 85 point ride on Big Country's Skoal Bandit Sandman. Wes Cyr of Nanton, AB took the win at Wainwright with an 84-point ride on Vold's Razamataz, while North Battleford, SK's Mickey Ireland came up victorious at Sundre with a high-scoring 87 points on Franklin's Over the Top.

The money was spread out over the three western provinces in the steer wrestling at the three rodeos, with Paynton, SK's Todd Boggest winning at Wainwright with a 4.2 for a hefty payday of $1,809, John Gibson of Hardisty, AB taking home the bacon at Sundre after a 3.7 second run for $1,649 and Lee Graves of Williams Lake, BC, clocking a 5.1 for $1,407 at High River.

Burns and Scalds

Anyone who has been near a kitchen knows that it's easy to burn or scald yourself. The size, location and depth determines how serious a burn is. Burns to infants and the elderly are always serious. Here are some first aid tips for burns:

- Immerse the burn in cool water to relieve pain.
 - Cover the burn with a dry, sterile dressing and bandage bandage it lightly. Do not use ointments.
 - If the burns are around the face, monitor breathing.
 - Get medical help.
- Know what to do. St. John Ambulance can provide you with first aid training for burns and other common injuries. Call your local office for more information on first aid, CPR and health promotion.

Spirit of victory

Ya gotta believe if you're going to win,
The New Jersey Devils just didn't give in.

Salute to each player who never gave up,
The spirit that brought them their first Stanley Cup.

The hockey world called this the Year of the Wings,
But now they see better what confidence brings.

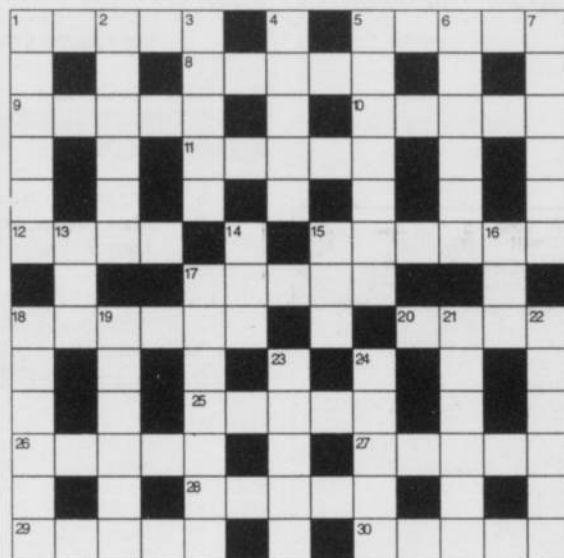

The New Jersey Devils go out on a high,
Win one for the Gipper, the old do-or-die.

Jacques and Larry, conviction as great as it gets,
You can't put a price on the spirit of vets.

The spirit of teamwork, have tricks up your sleeve,
Above all, the trick is to make teams believe.

The Wing's Scotty Bowman was quoted one day,
As saying his players lacked spirit of play.

And so we salute the intangible part,
Possessed by all winners and stored in the heart.
